Relaxed, with a little
sophistication.
Catalina is adventurous, she lives her life to the fullest, whether its with her friends, family, or her children. During the week, she works at her non-profit giving back to her community. On her free days, she loves shopping at the Farmer's Market or Fresh Market to make charcuterie boards. She enjoys the warm breeze by riding her bike or riding her Jeep with the top down by the vineyards.
